Here are the responses. Arnie and I will be around today but will be gone first three days of next week (arnie) and all of next week (me). If there are further questions which we are not able to address today, we'll have to wait until the 18th of April. Otherwise if OMB approves please send approval to Arnie and me and to William.Tirre@ed.gov Thanks! -- Edie

Arnie, searching back in my memory, I thought we might have given honoraria to the schools that we visited for the IEP and LEP studies we did as part of the TSA evaluation. Sure enough, I dredged through the files and verified that we gave each school a $100 honorarium. Since the TSA evaluation was a grant, not a contract, we didn't secure OMB clearance.
